The Lamb of God

If I saw Jesus, would I recognize him? If he came towards me, would I bow down before him or would I run away from him - turn my back on him? This question is not so hypothetical. In fact, it is easily answered by the choices I have made in the difficult times of my life. Have I chosen God over myself? His Will over mine; his selflessness or my selfishness? This is a question we can all answer.

John saw the Lord coming towards him and immediately recognized him. He told his disciples, the gems of his hard labour, to no longer follow him but to follow the Lord. Saints do not give to the world themselves; they give to the world Christ. John, like Mary, gave to the world the Son of God. Lord, let there be light, and there was Light!

A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me. What does it take to be a disciple of the Lord? Humility - what does it mean to be humble? To accept myself for what I am. I am a speck of sand – in time and in space! I am a dot in the universe – in length and in width! Our planet is not even in the centre of our solar system! Copernicus pushed us off to the side! Hubble kicked us out of our unique galaxy! And I think to myself...How comforting this is. Nothing I do makes any difference. I can do whatever I want.

But in reality, in the eyes of all that can see, I am a spiritual giant! Taller than any redwood, more conscious than any existing matter, more intelligent than our sun, more nurturing than Mother Nature, more loving than all the precious stones below, and much more forgiving than the Universe! I belong to my Creator in a unique, singular way! I belong to the Lord who is my Father, my brother, my God. Only man and woman can look up into the sky and say, "What a beautiful night." No animal, no-thing can do that! Only man and woman can say, "I am here", and no one can take my place. And what is truly remarkable is: My God knows me. "To those who accepted him, he gave power to become children of God." Now I know who I am. I can make a difference! "Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will!"

Now I must accept who the Lord has made me to be: his child. I will not run away from the Lord. I will run to the Lord and embrace Him. He has given me depth and length, purpose and meaning. He who ranks ahead of me is coming to me! I am his and he is mine. I am not an insignificant speck. I am a drop of God's infinite love, capable of making another smile, of bringing joy to another, of opening heaven to those sunk into despair.

This power to become children of God means to rise above the existing confusion of this world and set some order to it! We have been called to bring some light; to open the skies and discover the heavens above. To see life for what it is: an overflow of God's love. Here am I, Lord; I come to do your will. I will not succumb to the greatest lie ever! That is, "I'm so sorry. I can't help you."

May I never be comforted in thinking that I am a speck! May I be terrified in knowing that I am a drop of love – infinite love – from God! This drop makes all the difference in the world.

FROM AROUND THE ARCHDIOCESE

ACBC BUSHFIRE APPEAL - JANUARY 25TH/26TH

While the bishops typically respond to challenges at a parish or diocesan level, the scale of this crisis requires a national response from the whole Church to complement and coordinate what is happening locally. Parishes across the country are taking up a special collection at Masses on the Australia Day weekend, with all funds to be donated to the Vinnies' bushfire appeal. Vinnies is responding in all affected states and territories. Its network of local conferences and support services has seen them rapidly respond throughout the nation as the fire crisis has spread.

While a collection will be taken up at Masses on Australia Day weekend, people are encouraged to donate online at:

<https://donate.vinnies.org.au/appeals-nsw/vinnies-nsw-bushfire-appeal-nsw> or if you specifically wish to donate to Queensland victims please go to:

<https://donate.vinnies.org.au/appeals-qld/vinnies-disaster-appeal-qld>

If you make a donation through the parish collection and require a receipt for tax purposes please place your donation in an envelope with your details and a receipt will be arranged by this office.

If you require any further information please ring the Parish Office.

CARE FOR OUR COMMON WORLD LIVING LAUDATO SI.....THINK GLOBALLY, ACT LOCALLY

"The earth is essentially a shared inheritance, whose fruits are meant to benefit everyone." (Pope Francis, Laudato Si, Ch 2)

You are invited to share in this Community Forum on Saturday February 15th 2020 from 9.00am-1.45pm at Our Lady Queen of Apostles, 70 Appleby Rd, Stafford. We are called to learn, to understand, to reflect and to act upon the wisdoms of Pope Francis as he challenges all people of good will to make an 'ecological conversion'. At the community forum we will look at the message within Laudato Si, engage with guest speakers from government, non-government and Christian organisations, exchange ideas and grow in knowledge, so that we are better equipped to care for our Common Home. Expressions of Interest: Please Contact Stafford Parish Office by email: stafford@bne.catholic.net.au or by calling 07 3356 7155
