18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A

1st/2nd August, 2020

Are you ready to share

Today in the Gospel, Jesus received devastating news. He heard that his beloved cousin, John, had been brutally beheaded. In the wake of this news, Jesus needed time to be alone to absorb this news and begin to grieve for his dear friend.

Jesus got into a boat and withdrew to a deserted place. However, his time for grieving was short-lived. The crowd of people followed him and arrived there before him. I wonder if Jesus was tempted to start rowing to find another place where he could be alone? However, Matthew writes "that Jesus' heart was moved with pity for the crowd." Jesus got out of the boat and ministered to the people. He healed all those who yearned to be "whole" again.

As evening drew near, the disciples realized that many had not brought any food to eat. They were concerned for the people but they did not know what to do. They went to Jesus and told him to send the people away to the towns where they could buy food. However, Jesus instructs his disciples to feed the crowd. His disciples immediately protested. They said: "We only have two fish and five loaves of bread! This small amount of food will never be enough for this huge crowd!"

Jesus, however, was not disturbed or worried. He told his disciples to bring the fish and the bread to him. Then he instructed the crowd of people to sit down on the grass. I wonder what the disciples were thinking as they gathered the food? Did they think Jesus was crazy? Or were they anticipating another miracle?

Jesus took the bread and the fish and he blessed them. He then gave the bread and fish to his disciples and instructed them to distribute the food to the people. They did so. And as we know, everyone was well fed and there were quite a few baskets of leftovers.

Do you ever get concerned that you may not have "enough" for what seems to be needed? It may not be enough money, energy, time, love, appreciation or _____ (you fill in the blank). These are the times when we need to come to Jesus and ask him to supply us with what we truly need. And Jesus will give us what we need. However, it may not be exactly what we asked for. At these times, will we trust that Jesus is supplying us with "the loaves and fishes" that we need? Or will we complain because Jesus had disappointed us?

I wish to congratulate Tayla and thank all the parishioners, friends and Sr Mel for your wonderful support and prayers for Tayla in her faith journey.

I express my appreciation and would like to thank Ruby, Julie and Sr Mel for leading our Sunday mass choir at St Joachim's for the past number of years and for sharing their beautiful talents with this community. We have enjoyed it. So thank you very much for your commitment and voices.

With God's blessings, Fr Joson

Readings: Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Kings 19:9, 11-13

Romans 9:1-5

Matthew 14:22-33

READINGS FOR 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES

First Reading Isaiah 55:1-3

Thus says the Lord:
Oh, come to the water all you who are thirsty;
though you have no money, come!
Buy corn without money, and eat, and, at no cost, wine and milk.
Why spend money on what is not bread, your wages on what fails to satisfy?
Listen, listen to me and you will have good things to eat and rich food to enjoy.
Pay attention, come to me; listen, and your soul will live.
With you I will make an everlasting covenant out of the favours promised to David.

Responsorial Psalm

The hand of the Lord feeds us:
he answers all our needs.

Second Reading Romans 8:35,37-39

Nothing can come between us and the love of Christ, even if we are troubled or worried, or being persecuted, or lacking food or clothes, or being threatened or even attacked. These are the trials through which we triumph, by the power of him who loved us.

For I am certain of this: neither death nor life, no angel, no prince, nothing that exists, nothing still to come, not any power, or height or depth, nor any created thing, can ever come between us and the love of God made visible in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
No one lives on bread alone,
But on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Alleluia!

Gospel Acclamation Matthew 14:13-21

When Jesus received the news of John the Baptist's death he withdrew by boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But the people heard of this and, leaving the towns, went after him on foot. So as he stepped ashore he saw a large crowd; and he took pity on them and healed their sick.

When evening came, the disciples went to him and said, 'This is a lonely place, and the time has slipped by; so send the people away, and they can go to the villages to buy themselves some food.' Jesus replied, 'There is no need for them to go: give them something to eat yourselves.' But they answered, 'All we have with us is five loaves and two fish.' 'Bring them here to me,' he said. He gave orders that the people were to sit down on the grass; then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven and said the blessing. And breaking the loaves he handed them to his disciples who gave them to the crowds. They all ate as much as they wanted, and they collected the scraps remaining, twelve baskets full. Those who ate numbered about five thousand men, to say nothing of women and children.

Launch of our Youth Ministry Program

On the 8th of August, the parish is hosting a special event to which the youth and families of the parish are being invited to attend the 6:00pm Mass at St Joachim's. Following Mass there will be a BBQ dinner and drinks, offering an opportunity to socialise and celebrate together as a parish.

Please book as usual on-line or through the parish office. There are 2 booking sites, one for the youth and one for general parishioner bookings. Please select the correct session.

I am looking forward to meeting parishioners and introducing our young people to this new initiative.
