14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year A

4th/5th July, 2020

Dear Friends

Today's Gospel begins with Jesus exclaiming, "I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children."

What has God hidden from the wise and revealed to little ones? Here Jesus wasn't just speaking about young boys and girls, but all the poor, the under-privileged, the marginalised and the destitute. And what has God done for them?

Quite simply, some Jewish religious leaders claimed that to enter God's Kingdom people needed a very detailed knowledge not only of the 613 Laws given to Moses, but also the multitude of additional minute precisions made to them. What is more, they were expected to observe every one of them. Only religious legal experts could possibly do that. The majority of people would be dismissed as ignorant sinners and excluded.

But Jesus tells us that the so-called experts have got it wrong. He has come to remove the crushing, impossible, burden of so many petty rules and regulations. To each of us he says, 'Come to me all you who labour and over-burdened, and I will give you rest. "Jesus offers those, who would be dismissed as ignorant and unimportant, freedom from trying to carry such an impossible burden; now they -we -can rest in the Lord, in a happiness which had seemed impossibly.

But Jesus goes on to say, 'my yoke is easy, my burden light'; that removes any complacency we may feel. We can't yet sit back and relax. Following Christ is demanding and at times difficult. But the demands are not meticulous observance of petty man-made regulations, but something far more serious. That is the command to love God above all else, and our neighbour as ourselves. The command to love covers everything that really matters. It touches every corner of our lives. Laws are only good in so far as they protect and foster real love.

And what about the yoke Christ mentions in this Gospel? Well, as you probably know, a yoke is a piece of wood, shaped to rest comfortably on the shoulders. Loads are attached to each end and are easy to carry because their weight is spread. The point is that we must carry our crosses and follow Christ on the difficult journey of love, if we are to find the eternal rest which He promises. But Jesus here tells us that with His help we can carry the weight of our crosses. He can transform carrying our burdens into labours of love. We couldn't begin to do that without Him. But, with His assistance we can do what would be humanly impossible.

There's a beautiful story which shows that this can transform drudgery into a labour of love. Someone, seeing a lad carrying his young brother on his back, sympathetically remarked, "That's a heavy load you're carrying." To which the lad replied, "That's not a load; that's my little brother!" That came from the heart and was, indeed, a labour of love!

So, while the so-called wise thought they could reach heaven through their detailed knowledge of rules and their own efforts in observing them, Christ has a completely different approach. The law of love is the only way to heaven. The wonderful thing is that with God's help that is possible for all of us.

Fr. Isidore Clarke O.P.

Isaiah 55:10-11

Romans 8:18-23

Matthew 13:1-23

READINGS FOR 14TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES

First Reading      Zechariah 9:9–10

The Lord says this:

‘Rejoice heart and soul, child of Zion!
Shout with gladness, child of Jerusalem!
See now, your king comes to you;
he is victorious, he is triumphant,
humble and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
He will banish chariots from Ephraim and horses from Jerusalem;
the bow of war will be banished.
He will proclaim peace for the nations.
His empire shall stretch from sea to sea,
from the River to the ends of the earth.’

Responsorial Psalm

I will praise your name for ever,
my king and my God.

Second Reading      Romans 8:9, 11–13

Your interests are not in the unspiritual, but in the spiritual, since the Spirit of God has made his home in you. In fact, unless you possessed the Spirit of Christ you would not belong to him, and if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, then he who raised Jesus from the dead will give life to your own mortal bodies through his Spirit living in you.

So then, my brothers and sisters, there is no necessity for us to obey our unspiritual selves or to live unspiritual lives. If you do live in that way, you are doomed to die; but if by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body you will live.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.
Alleluia!

Gospel      Matthew 11:25–30

Jesus exclaimed, ‘I bless you, Father, Lord of heaven and of earth, for hiding these things from the learned and the clever and revealing them to mere children. Yes, Father, for that is what it pleased you to do. Everything has been entrusted to me by my Father; and no one knows the Son except the Father, just as no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

‘Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest. Shoulder my yoke and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. Yes, my yoke is easy and my burden light.’
