Christ's Church Will Not Fall

One of the most heartbreaking things to me is the sight of a vacant church all boarded up. Worse yet, is seeing a church converted into something like an indoor skateboard park. Over the years, many churches have closed and have been torn down as well. The ones that remain require constant upkeep and maintenance, like front step projects which have gone on way too long or new water heaters. All churches are built and dedicated to the glory of God, but they're all susceptible to fire, decay, and ruin. Jesus today speaks of a different type of Church, a church that will always prevail and will never succumb to the ravages of time or anything else.

When we think about the church, we usually think about this building or the services we hold here. In His discussion with Peter and the rest of the disciples, Jesus gives us another definition, one that can include the buildings we see around us, but not necessarily. Jesus asserts, "On this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." The rock that Jesus is talking about is the belief behind the confession of Peter, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." The Church is found wherever Jesus is clearly proclaimed as the Christ, the Son of the living God. Sadly, not all churches faithfully proclaim the fullness of this confession, but this confession must be the foundation of any church if it is to be part of the Church.

This is our confession and you must make this confession every day. You daily confess that Jesus is more than a nice man, more than a good man, more than a teacher or a magician. If He's nothing more than a good teacher, He does nothing for us. But as the Son of the Living God, He is more than a prophet. He's the Savior. We confess Jesus as the Savior because it helps us remember who He is. It's easy to lose sight of Jesus and what He's done for us. It's easy to push Him into the background. So instead we voice our confession in our prayers and conversations. We proclaim who Jesus is, to tell others and to remind ourselves.

Christ's Church will never fall because it has an important task, the most important task since the one Christ took upon Himself, it must use the keys to the kingdom. It must proclaim the forgiveness of sins. Jesus says, "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

This is why the Church proclaims the full extent of God's Word. We don't leave the parts we don't like out. We don't change what Jesus teaches or what we believe about Him. We preach the Word of God and use the authority that Christ has given us. We preach the Law which condemns sin and sinful behavior, and we preach the Gospel which forgives all sin and sinful behavior. Those who are heartbroken for their sins, those who can't forgive themselves, those who admit that they are sinners, find forgiveness in Christ.

Dear friends the Church belongs to Christ. Christ's authority belongs to the Church. So it is here in this local church and in community of Christian faithful that you can see the gates of Heaven being opened by Christ Himself. The Church of Christ, founded by Him, watched over by Him, and guided by Him, will always survive. The gates of Hell couldn't stop Jesus and they sure won't stop His Church. His Church will never be collapsed because it confesses, because we confess, that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God.

Readings: Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jeremiah 20:7-9

Romans 12:1-2

Matthew 16:21-27

READINGS FOR 21ST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMES

First Reading

Isaiah 22:19-30

Thus says the Lord of hosts to Shebna, the master of the palace:

I dismiss you from your office, I remove you from your post,
and the same day I call on my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah.
I invest him with your robe, gird him with your sash,
entrust him with your authority;
and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem
and to the House of Judah.
I place the key of the House of David on his shoulder;
should he open, no one shall close,
should he close, no one shall open.
I drive him like a peg into a firm place;
he will become a throne of glory for his father's house.

Responsorial Psalm

Resp: Lord, your love is eternal; do not forsake the work of your hands.

I thank you, Lord, with all my heart,
you have heard the words of my mouth.
Before the angels I will bless you.
I will adore before your holy temple.

I thank you for your faithfulness and love
which excel all we ever knew of you.
On the day I called, you answered;
you increased the strength of my soul.

The Lord is high yet he looks on the lowly
and the haughty he knows from afar.
Your love, O Lord, is eternal,
discard not the work of your hands.

Second Reading

Romans 11:33-36

How rich are the depths of God – how deep his wisdom and knowledge – and how impossible to penetrate his motives or understand his methods! Who could ever know the mind of the Lord? Who could ever be his counsellor? Who could ever give him anything or lend him anything? All that exists comes from him; all is by him and for him. To him be glory for ever! Amen.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

You are Peter, the rock on which I will build my Church;
the gates of hell will not hold out against it.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 16:13-20

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say the Son of Man is?' And they said, 'Some say he is John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he said 'who do you say I am?' Then Simon Peter spoke up, 'You are the Christ,' he said, 'the Son of the living God.' Jesus replied, 'Simon son of Jonah, you are a happy man! Because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you but my Father in heaven. So I now say to you: You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church. And the gates of the underworld can never hold out against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven: whatever you bind on earth shall be considered bound in heaven; whatever you loose on earth shall be considered loosed in heaven.' Then he gave the disciples strict orders not to tell anyone that he was the Christ.

PLEASE REMEMBER TO BOOK IN

Living the gospel

Who do YOU say I am?

The question that Jesus asks the disciples is a question he asks of all of us. How we answer that question reflects our relationship with Jesus. But more importantly, how we answer that question reflects the way we live our life in response to who we believe Jesus to be. If we truly say that we believe in Jesus as the son of God, then how do we live our lives in such a way that we act on that belief? The gospel shows us that an inadequate answer to that question leads to missing the point of all that Jesus is.
