Easter Sunday

Year B

3rd/4th April, 2021

Jesus is still present....

As I am writing these lines I feel a kind of emptiness, anxiety and dilemma this Wednesday about all the Easter celebrations. But we are preparing everything for Easter with the hope that things will be normal come Thursday evening and we can meet together and celebrate our faith. Today, with Mary of Magdalen, Peter, and other apostles, we find that Jesus' tomb is empty.

We have been witnessing an emptiness everywhere; empty pews; empty campuses; empty schools; empty streets and the list goes on these days. The word empty seems to echo throughout the seasons ever since the Coronavirus outbreak hit the world. Who would have thought that we are self-quarantining these days? Who would have thought that the COVID-19 pandemic is changing everything, turning our lives upside down? Little by little, we try to make sense of the situation.

One fact is that the global pandemic shows the world our interconnectedness with one another in which our safety and life depend on each other. It does not matter where we live, where we are from, or what we do, this global phenomenon propels all of us to recognize first and foremost our humanity and limitedness. We find that because we are human and limited, we ask, "Where is the Lord?"

Like us, Mary of Magdala, Peter, and other apostles were confused, scared, and dismayed when they found out that the tomb was empty. They wondered, "Where is the Lord?" Little did they know that Jesus had risen from the dead. Little they know that having an empty tomb was the beginning of the Good News.

I am aware it is hard to exclaim, "Hallelujah!", and to find the joy of the Resurrection amid sicknesses and deaths, virtual church services, economic disruptions, postponed schedules, and all kinds of uncertainties. Yet like Mary of Magdala, Peter, and other apostles, we could hope that today is a new beginning. Indeed, today is a new beginning of the Good News and life itself.

Dear friends Jesus Christ rose! Let us anchor our faith in the truth that we are forgiven, redeemed, and transformed. Amidst all the challenges and despair may the true light of the Risen Lord shine on us. I wish you all a blessed and happy Easter.

God's blessings, Fr Joson

Readings: 2nd Sunday of Easter

Acts 4:32-35

1 John 5:1-6

John 20:19-31

READINGS FOR EASTER SUNDAY

First Reading

Acts 10:34, 37-43

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

Responsorial Psalm

Response: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say:

'His love has no end.'

The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice;

let us feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 20:1-9

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

Prayer to St Joseph

You were chosen by God to be the fosterer father of Jesus, the most pure spouse of Mary, and the head of the holy Family. We ask your intercession...

Protect our pope and all who labour for souls amid the trials and tribulations of this life, and grant that all peoples of the world may follow Christ.

Protect us from every disease present in our world.

Remove all fear from our hearts. Fill us with confidence.

Dear St. Joseph, accept the offering I make to you. Be my father, protector and guide in the way of salvation.

Amen

Continuing on our faith journey during changed times; when our faith will sustain us through our challenges.
