5th Sunday of EasterYear B*1st/2nd May, 2021*Remain in me and bear fruit

Many of us think that living a Christian life is just a matter of following a set of God-imposed rules, more or less strict, following which qualifies us to enter a beautiful place called heaven. At the end of our life, He adds up the columns. If the good works column tallies up higher, then we go to heaven. If not, then we go to hell.

Obviously, Christian life is more than just the above. This is precisely what the Parable of the Vine and Branches tells us (Jn. 15:1-8). Jesus is the true vine and His Father is the vine grower. As vine, Jesus accepts the authority of the Father over Him: "My food is to do the will of the one who sent me" (Jn 4:34). This is how Jesus achieves "fullness of life."

This happens when we believe in Jesus and show it by our love for one another. For as John says in the first reading (1 Jn. 3: 18-24), "His commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us." "I am the vine; you are the branches." Just as the branch receives its life from the vine, we, individually and as a member of the community of believers, receive divine life through Jesus.

The branch must bear fruit. How? By remaining in Jesus. "If a person remains in me and I in them," says Jesus, "they will bear much fruit. For the vine to bear much fruit, it must be constantly pruned.

There is one test for the genuineness of our life of love: Does our life bear fruits of faith and love in others? Does it inspire others to seek Jesus because of the fruits we bear? If not, then the life of Jesus is not in us. On the other hand, when our relationship with Jesus blossoms into good relationships with others, when we are concerned about and actually help the sick, the poor, the lonely -- all those who suffer -- then we as branches make the vine thrive and bear much fruit. Love for God and for one another shown in deeds is the unmistakable sign that we are truly the disciples of Jesus.

Our "fullness of life" cycle is thus this: We have life by "remaining" in Jesus Who in turn "remains" in the Father. And for us to "remain" in Jesus, we have to bear fruits of love in the service of others.

(Fr. Al Cariño, O.M.I.)

Readings: 6th Sunday of EasterActs 10:25-26, 34-35, 44-48*1 John 4:7-10*John 15:9-17

READINGS FOR FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading

Acts 9:26-31

When Saul got to Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him: they could not believe he was really a disciple. Barnabas, however, took charge of him, introduced him to the apostles, and explained how the Lord had appeared to Saul and spoken to him on his journey, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. Saul now started to go round with them in Jerusalem, preaching fearlessly in the name of the Lord. But after he had spoken to the Hellenists, and argued with them, they became determined to kill him. When the brothers knew, they took him to Caesarea, and sent him off from there to Tarsus.

The churches throughout Judaea, Galilee and Samaria were now left in peace, building themselves up, living in the fear of the Lord, and filled with the consolation of the Holy Spirit.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

My vows I will pay before those who fear him.

The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.

They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him.

May their hearts live for ever and ever!

All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord,
all families of the nations worship before him.

They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust.

And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him.
They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come,
declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn:
'These things the Lord has done.'

Second Reading

1 John 3:18-24

My children, our love is not to be just words or mere talk,
but something real and active;

only by this can we be certain that we are the children of the truth and be able to quieten our conscience in his presence, whatever accusations it may raise against us, because God is greater than our conscience and he knows everything.
My dear people, if we cannot be condemned by our own conscience, we need not be afraid in God's presence, and whatever we ask him, we shall receive, because we keep his commandments and live the kind of life that he wants.

His commandments are these:

that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ and that we love one another as he told us to.

Whoever keeps his commandments lives in God and God lives in him.

We know that he lives in us by the Spirit that he has given us.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord; my branches bear much fruit.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 10:1-8

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser.

Every branch in me that bears no fruit he cuts away,
and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes to make it bear even more.

You are pruned already, by means of the word that I have spoken to you.

Make your home in me, as I make mine in you.

As a branch cannot bear fruit all by itself, but must remain part of the vine, neither can you unless you remain in me.

I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever remains in me, with me in him, bears fruit in plenty; for cut off from me you can do nothing.

Anyone who does not remain in me is like a branch that has been thrown away

- he withers;

these branches are collected and thrown on the fire, and they are burnt.

If you remain in me and my words remain in you, you may ask what you will and you shall get it.

It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit, and then you will be my disciples.'

Prayer to St Joseph

You were chosen by God to be the fosterer father of Jesus, the most pure spouse of Mary, and the head of the holy Family. We ask your intercession...

Protect our pope and all who labour for souls amid the trials and tribulations of this life, and grant that all peoples of the world may follow Christ.

Protect us from every disease present in our world.

Remove all fear from our hearts. Fill us with confidence.

Dear St. Joseph, accept the offering I make to you. Be my father, protector and guide in the way of salvation.

Amen

Continuing on our faith journey during changed times; when our faith will sustain us through our challenges.
