Be Opened.....

In this reading, Jesus gives a man who cannot hear or speak the ability to do so. Jesus takes a man who at this point in time is often cast out of society for being “different” or “unable” and sees the value in him despite social stigmas, understanding that he too is created in God’s image. After Jesus allows the man to be “opened,” those who witnessed the results are amazed and spread the news.

I find some comfort in this reading. I am reminded of Jesus’s power and desire to help those who seek him - even those who feel that they are incurable. For me personally, it is easy to feel like I’m not doing enough to deepen my faith. I could definitely make the effort to spend more time with God, to trust in His plan, and to deliberately seek His counsel, but this is easier said than done.

When I feel like I need to open my ears to God and speak of His goodness, I often go to visible spaces to try to rekindle my faith, like going to Mass, or by leaning on other people for support. While groups and communities can certainly help me find a sense of peace, this reading challenges me and suggests that sometimes what is really needed is time alone with God. For instance, in this particular reading, Jesus took the man away from the crowd and into a more private space to work the miracles. I say “work” miracles instead of the commonly used “perform” miracles because Jesus didn’t need an audience. This makes me think that I too can “be opened” by God by spending time alone with Him without the presence of an “audience.” We all can benefit from forming a personal relationship with Christ away from the crowds. This reading is commissioning us to change for Christ by allowing ourselves to be opened in the privacy of our own soul.

I wish all our fathers and fatherly figures a very blessed father’s day.

Congratulations to the children who celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation, with Bishop Ken Howell on Wednesday night. I would also like to thank Rachel Marchesini, our Sacramental Coordinator for the work she did in preparing the children for this occasion.

With God’s blessings,

Fr Joson

Readings: 24th Sunday in Ordinary Times

Isaiah 50:5-9

James 2: 14-18

Mark 8:27-35

First Reading

Isaiah 35:4-7

Say to all faint hearts,
'Courage! Do not be afraid.

'Look, your God is coming, vengeance is coming, the retribution of God;
he is coming to save you.'

Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, the ears of the deaf unsealed, then the lame shall leap like a deer and the tongues of the dumb sing for joy;

for water gushes in the desert, streams in the wasteland,
the scorched earth becomes a lake, the parched land springs of water.

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Praise the Lord my soul.

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed.

It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down,

the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger.

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan, but thwarts the path of the wicked.

The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age.

Second Reading

James 2:1-5

My brothers, do not try to combine faith in Jesus Christ, our glorified Lord, with the making of distinctions between classes of people. Now suppose a man comes into your synagogue, beautifully dressed and with a gold ring on, and at the same time a poor man comes in, in shabby clothes, and you take notice of the well-dressed man, and say, 'Come this way to the best seats'; then you tell the poor man, 'Stand over there' or 'You can sit on the floor by my foot-rest.' Can't you see that you have used two different standards in your mind, and turned yourselves into judges, and corrupt judges at that?

Listen, my dear brothers: it was those who are poor according to the world that God chose, to be rich in faith and to be the heirs to the kingdom which he promised to those who love him.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 7:31-37

Returning from the district of Tyre, Jesus went by way of Sidon towards the sea of Galilee, right through the Decapolis region. And they brought him a deaf man who had an impediment in his speech; and they asked him to lay his hand on him. He took him aside in private, away from the crowd, put his fingers into the man's ears and touched his tongue with spittle. Then looking up to heaven he sighed; and he said to him, 'Ephphatha,' that is,
'Be opened.' And his ears were opened, and the ligament of his tongue was loosened and he spoke clearly. And Jesus ordered them to tell no one about it, but the more he insisted, the more widely they published it. Their admiration was unbounded. 'He has done all things well,' they said 'he makes the deaf hear and the dumb speak.'

Prayer to St Joseph

You were chosen by God to be the foster father of Jesus, the most pure spouse of Mary, and the head of the Holy Family.
We ask your intercession...

Protect our Pope and all who labour for souls amid the trials and tribulations of this life, and grant that all peoples of the world may follow Christ.

Protect us from every disease present in our world.

Remove all fear from our hearts. Fill us with confidence.

Dear St. Joseph, accept the offering I make to you. Be my father, protector and guide in the way of salvation.

Amen

Continuing on our faith journey during changed times; when our faith will sustain us through our challenges.

A MESSAGE FROM ARCHBISHOP MARK COLERIDGE

The Queensland Parliament, will soon be debating and voting on controversial laws to make euthanasia and assisted suicide legal in the state. These laws, if passed, will overturn foundational principles that have underpinned our medical and legal systems for centuries – the ethic of 'do no harm' and the prohibition on killing. We need to do all we can to protect Queenslanders rather than assist them to die. Euthanasia and assisted suicide laws undermine the fundamental relationship of trust that should exist between a patient and their doctor. They have the potential to put vulnerable Queenslanders who are elderly or terminally ill at risk of wrongful death, including placing pressure on them to take their own lives so as not to be a 'burden' on their family and friends. We have seen this occur in countries overseas which have gone down this path.

I am asking you to take two important steps today.

First, I ask you to sign this petition to the Queensland Parliament, asking them to reject this euthanasia and assisted suicide laws. The petition is sponsored by HOPE, a single-issue coalition of groups who oppose euthanasia and assisted suicide.

Petition link: https://www.no euthanasia.org.au/petition_2108_qld

Second, I ask you to email your Queensland State Member of Parliament and urge them to oppose the introduction of these laws. Send an email to your MP link: https://www.no euthanasia.org.au/petition_2105_ocp_qld

This matter is now urgent.

Vulnerable sick and elderly people in Queensland need your help to ensure these lethal laws are not passed in this state. I urge you to sign the petition and email your MP today, and ask friends and family to do the same.

SAFEGUARDING CHILDREN & VULNERABLE ADULTS PREVENTION AND PROTECTION POLICY

... for it is to such as thee that the kingdom of God belongs.

The Archdiocese of Brisbane holds that children, young people and vulnerable adults are a gift from God with an intrinsic right to dignity of life, respect and security from physical and emotional harm. They are to be treasured, nurtured and safeguarded by all.

This means that everyone in the church must ensure that the fundamental rights of children, young people and vulnerable adults are respected. This will be achieved through the development of respectful relationships and a commitment to safety embracing appropriate boundaries, behaviours and practices, in accordance with the Archdiocesan Code of Ethical Behaviour and adherence to legislative imperatives of the State. This policy applies to Clergy, Religious, Staff, Parishioners, Volunteers, Students on placement and Visitors to our sites.
