Pope Francis Jorge Mario Bergoglio

Throughout his 12-year papacy, Pope Francis gave many addresses, talks, and statements, and he penned numerous encyclicals and apostolic exhortations emphasizing themes of hope, mercy, compassion, and joy. Below is a collection of quotes that reflect Pope Francis' vision for a more compassionate and Christ-centered world.

Hope: "Christian hope does not deceive or disappoint because it is grounded in the certainty that nothing and no one may ever separate us from God's love ... The death and resurrection of Jesus is the heart of our faith and the basis of our hope."

Mercy: "Let me say this once more: God never tires of forgiving us; we are the ones who tire of seeking his mercy ... Time and time again he bears us on his shoulders. No one can strip us of the dignity bestowed upon us by this boundless and unfailing love."

Joy: "Without this joy, faith shrinks into an oppressive and dreary thing; the saints are not 'sourpusses' but men and women with joyful hearts, open to hope ... Blessed Carlo Acutis is likewise a model of Christian joy for teenagers and young people. And the evangelical, and paradoxical, 'perfect joy' of St. Francis of Assisi continues to impress us."

Love: "You who live by always giving, and think that you need nothing, do you realize that you are poor yourself? Do you realize that you are very poor and that you need what they can give you? Do you let yourself be evangelized by the poor, by the sick, by those you assist?"

Migrants and refugees: "The Lord entrusts to the Church's motherly love every person forced to leave their homeland in search of a better future ... In this regard, I wish to reaffirm that 'our shared response may be articulated by four verbs: to welcome, to protect, to promote, and to integrate.'"

Environment and climate change: "We have to realize that a true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor."

Pets vs. people: "I greeted the woman, and she opened a bag and said: 'Will you bless him, my baby?' A dog!" "I did not have any patience there... 'Madam, many children are hungry, and you are here with a dog!' Brothers and sisters, these are scenes from the present, but if things continue like this, it will be the custom of the future: beware."

Marriage and family life: "There are always problems and arguments in married life," the pope said. "It is normal for husband and wife to argue and to raise their voices; they squabble, and even plates go flying! So do not be afraid of this when it happens. May I give you a piece of advice: Never end the day without making peace."

Youth and the elderly: "The future of the world depends on this covenant between young and old. Who, if not the young, can take the dreams of the elderly and make them come true? Yet for this to happen, it is necessary that we continue to dream."

"Our dreams of justice, of peace, of solidarity can make it possible for our young people to have new visions; in this way, together, we can build the future," the pope said.

Synodality: "Everyone, everyone, everyone! Nobody left outside: everyone ... It is up to us to amplify the sound of this whispering, never getting in its way; to open the doors, never building walls." "How much damage the women and men of the Church do when they build walls, how much damage! Everyone is welcome, everyone, everyone!" he said.

Popular piety: "The flames of love of the Sacred Heart of Jesus also expand through the Church's missionary outreach, which proclaims the message of God's love revealed in Christ ... As we contemplate the Sacred Heart, mission becomes a matter of love."

Food: "In this age of artificial intelligence, we cannot forget that poetry and love are necessary to save our humanity." "No algorithm," he said, "will ever be able to capture, for example, the nostalgia that all of us feel, whatever our age, and wherever we live, when we recall how we first used a fork to seal the edges of the pies that we helped our mothers or grandmothers to make at home."

May he Rest in Peace
