God's power

Luke is the only Gospel writer to give a forty-day time frame for the events of Easter, followed by Jesus' return to his Father, followed ten days later by the gift of the Spirit. This time frame may well be governed by the Jewish liturgical calendar where the Feast of Pentecost or 'First Fruits' occurs fifty days after Passover (Easter). The Ascension celebrates an experience of the early Christian communities. There was a time when they knew Jesus of Nazareth. He lived among them and they were attracted by his vision of God's reign. Then, following his death, there were brief moments of his presence. But there came a time when even these Risen appearances finished. The time of the Jesus bound by human history has come to an end.

And yet, when they gathered to share their memories and to celebrate the Lord's Supper, they knew that he was still a presence in their midst. In fact, in the absence of Jesus of Nazareth, they had a new certainty of faith and enthusiasm for spreading the Gospel message. This empowering and enlivening presence they called the Spirit, drawing on the words of their Jewish Scriptures that described the power of God's Spirit in people's lives. The Greek word for the power of the Spirit is dunamis, from where we get words such as 'dynamic' and dynamite'.

With the new experience of the Spirit as a power and presence in their lives, Jesus' return to his Father is not a cause of grief but one of joy for now people of all times can share the experience of those first disciples.

Gospel Focus – A message for all people

One of the defining features of the Gospel of Luke is the fact that the message preached and practised by Jesus made salvation available to all people. At times in the gospel some of the Jewish audience became quite angry at Jesus because he said that pagans and gentiles were also included in the salvation he promised – something they regarded as exclusive to the 'chosen' people. The two accounts of the Ascension make very clear that the message and ministry of Jesus are to be carried to all nations – even to the ends of the earth!

LOCAL SAFEGUARDING OFFICER We wish to advise Parishioners that Lyn Russo has taken on the role of Local Safeguarding Officer and she will be working from the Parish Office, generally on a Monday afternoon. It will be Lyn who will be liaising with volunteers in future with regards to renewal and training requirements, updates from the Office of Safeguarding or Archdiocesan offices or other issues dealing with safeguarding. Lyn's email address is lsr.hpmg@bne.catholic.net.au; if you receive an email from this address it is not Spam. There may also be times when Lyn will contact you phone.

Assistance Needed in Eucharistic Ministry

[Esida Nursing Home, Mt Gravatt East]

Would you have an hour or two to spare on a Thursday morning?

We are looking for volunteers to assist a pastoral worker in bringing Holy Communion to some 15 catholic residents at Esida Nursing Home.

This is a beautiful opportunity to share Christ's love with those who are unable to attend Mass. Training will be provided.

We would love to hear from you if this is something you could help us with. For more information please contact the Parish Office

"I was sick and you visited me..." – Matthew 25:36

ST VINCENT DE PAUL ANNUAL WINTER APPEAL will be held in the Parish on the weekend of June 7th/8th. There's no one face of homelessness with people of all ages and backgrounds susceptible to going from stability to precarity in a short span of time. Homelessness could affect a neighbour, a colleague, a relative – it's never a choice, but sometimes it's the only option. The unrelenting cost-of-living crisis, the ongoing rental affordability crisis and shortage of affordable housing, is putting the future of more vulnerable Queenslanders at risk. For people at risk of or experiencing homelessness, the impacts can be long-lasting and insidious. Homelessness can affect health and mental well-being, impacting schooling and employment opportunities throughout people's lifetime. Through the generosity of our Donors, Vinnies were able to help Abigail and Isabella, two sisters who have never known a stable, safe and loving home. Funds raised through the Vinnies QLD Winter Appeal will directly support our core programs, providing vital assistance to people experiencing or at risk of homelessness, poverty, and cost-of-living pressures. Your continued support is vital. All funds raised in this Parish are used locally by our local St Joachim's St Agnes' Conference.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION, led by Archbishop Mark Coleridge, will be held at 2pm on Sunday, June 22 starting and ending from the Cathedral of St Stephen. Brochures with full details are available in the churches.

"The Ascension of the Lord is not his separation or removal from us, but rather the fulfilment of his mission. Jesus first descended to us, so that we might ascend to the Father. He came down to us in order to raise us on high".
