Dear Friends,

After several weeks of prayerful preparation, we now stand at the threshold of Christmas. The season of Advent has been a time of opening our hearts, homes, and families to welcome Jesus anew. These weeks have reminded us that our preparations are not only external, keeping our churches and homes beautiful and ready but also deeply internal, as we seek to make room for Christ in our hearts. In a world often troubled by conflict, division, and uncertainty, Advent calls us to long for peace: peace in our families, peace in our communities, and peace across nations. Through our daily Advent reflections, moments of prayer and reconciliation, and the grace-filled hours of full-day adorations, we have been gently led closer to the mystery of Christ's coming, who is Himself the Prince of Peace.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to our dedicated parish staff, volunteers and those who helped at our working bees, who have ensured that both inside and outside our churches are clean, welcoming, and ready for the celebration. Your quiet service has been a true witness of love. My special appreciation goes to our St Vincent de Paul Conference team, who have reached out to those in need with generosity and compassion, bringing hope through the distribution of Christmas hampers.

May this Christmas be a time for renewed faith, deep joy, and peace in our families and community. Let us come together to celebrate the birth of Christ, whose coming into the world has brought light where there was darkness, and love where there was despair.

I wish you all a Merry Christmas and a blessed New Year.

May the Lord's presence guide and strengthen you in the year ahead.

Fr. Thomas

SPIRITUALLY SPOT - Advent Reflection Week 4

During the last week of Advent, the liturgical hours concentrate on titles for the one to come as we lead towards Emmanuel – God with us. These titles are often referred to as the O Antiphons. The following song may help your reflection as we journey closer to this wonderful feast.

Christ Circle Round Us

Come, O Radiant Dawn, splendor of the morning light.

Come, Sun of Justice, turn away the power of night.

Christ, circle round us, Christ may your light surround us.
Shine in our living, fill our hearts with great thanksgiving.

Come, O Flower of Love, holy branch of Jesse's tree.
Come, Bough of Blessing, bloom for all the world to see.

Come, O Gate of Hope, holy door to heaven's throne.
Come, Key of David, open wide the pathway home.

Come, Emmanuel, cherished hope of Israel.
Come, live among us, ever in our hearts to dwell.
